DETAILED ACTION

Claims 5-10 are pending in this application.

Action Summary

1. The rejection of claims 5-10 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miyamoto et al. is being maintained for the reasons stated in the previous office action.

Declaration under 37 C.F.R. 1.132

2. The declaration of Kang Tae Lee filed October 23, 2003 is duly noted and is not persuasive. See response to arguments section below for reason.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed October 23, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues in a 37 C.F.R. 1.132 declaration that kidney bean extract and kidney bean pod extract are not the same thing as they contain different substances. Applicant in the declaration shows that kidney bean extract contains only one extract that is consistent with the extract from the kidney bean pod extract. It is the position of the examiner that although the kidney bean extract contains more types of extract than the pod it contains at least one of the same extract. Since the applicant has not indicated a specific type of extract and since traumatic acid is common in the kidney bean extract and kidney bean pod extract, then it is reasonable for one of ordinary skill in the art to use the traumatic acid as an extract in the claimed invention to achieve the desired results.

Art Unit: 1616

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
